

Looking Back and Looking Forward

As we close out 2024 and step boldly into 2025, I am filled with excitement for the fruit of this year and the incredible opportunities that lie ahead. We are truly in a season of vision and release!

I'd love for you to join me in reflecting on where we've been and where we're going by sharing your thoughts in a couple of areas:

Looking Back

Take some time to reflect on 2024 in regard to _____ :

- What are some positive wins from this year? Things we can celebrate that the Lord has accomplished.
- How have you seen God move in _____?
- How has your role in _____ contributed to your personal growth and development over the past year?

Looking Forward

The passages in Matthew provide powerful insights into faith and vision:

Matthew 9:28–29

When he entered the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord." Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you."

Matthew 20:32–33

And stopping, Jesus called them and said, "What do you want me to do for you?" They said to him, "Lord, let our eyes be opened." And Jesus in pity touched their eyes, and immediately they recovered their sight and followed him.

As we look ahead to 2025, let's ask ourselves:

1. What do we want from God?
 - What are we believing Him for in _____?
 - From your perspective, what are some specific goals that you believe _____ should set for 2025?
2. What would it look like if God moved powerfully through us?
 - What kind of impact could we have?
3. Where do we want to grow?
 - What areas need expansion or deeper focus?
4. Other thoughts or ideas
 - Anything else you feel God is stirring in your heart for this season.

Let's approach this with faith and expectancy, believing that "according to our faith, it will be done."

Let's discuss and compile our ideas the _____.